Uniform Code

- Students must wear the complete and correct uniform. No mixing of pieces, or the addition of personal items of clothing are permitted.
- Boys' shirts are to be tucked in.
- Scarves may not be used to avoid wearing a tie. Students may be requested to remove their scarf at any time.
- The College blazer must be worn at any formal occasion eg. Mass, Presentation Evening, Graduation etc, or as required.
- The Rosebank cap or hat may be worn at any time when outdoors. The Rosebank cap is compulsory on Thursday afternoons for outdoor PACE activities.
- Year 12 students may purchase a Class of 2025 'Year 12 Jersey' which may be worn on a Thursday with the College sports uniform or on mufti days.
- It is the collective responsibility of students, parents and staff to ensure that the Uniform and Grooming Code is followed.
- While on school grounds, students may wear the College jumper on its own. When off site, including travelling to and from school, the jumper may only be worn if it is under the blazer.
